Walker Systems Support Appoints Awo Quaison-Sackey as Director of Professional Services

May 8, 2008- Walker Systems Support, a leader in providing professional IT Network Support in the Northeast, is pleased to announce the appointment of Awo Quaison-Sackey as Director of Professional Services.

Awo comes to Walker from Synexta Technologies, Inc. where she served as President. Her responsibilities will include providing leadership and strategic direction for Walker's various technology-centric business products and services.

"My key focuses will be strengthening Walker's existing services and the identification and rollout of new services," stated Ms. Quaison-Sackey. "Walker is committed to professional and technical excellence; we treat our stakeholders the way we would like to be treated ourselves. We are a leader in the market place, and we intend to continue to deliver the level of service consistent with being a leader."

"Awo is a great asset to Walker Systems Support. She is a proven thought leader and will play a vital role in helping us to continue to achieve our aggressive growth goals," stated Katherine Emery, Walker Systems Support's Founder and Chairwoman.

Awo earned her Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Ghana and both an MBA and a Masters of Law degrees from Temple University. She resides in Avon CT.
